

- Home
- Degrees
- Certificates
- Course Catalog
- Student Services
- About Us

WORLD CAMPUS HOME » CERTIFICATES » COMMUNITY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT » CURRICULUM »

OVERVIEW

Courses

SEARCH SITE

CURRICULUM

- Course List
- Course Schedule

Search all of Penn State

COSTS

ADMISSIONS

FACULTY

FAQs

REQUEST INFORMATION

APPLY NOW

REQUIRED COURSES (13 credits)

CEDEV 430	Principles of Community Economic Development Concepts, strategies, and techniques of local economic analysis, planning, and development; case studies and decision-making exercises.	3 credits
CEDEV 452	Rural Organization Social organization and change in rural communities; use of sociological principles in analysis of rural problems and rural development.	3 credits
CEDEV 500	Community and Economic Development and Leadership Principles and strategies of community and economic development in relation to general systems theory; community decision making; leadership strategies and roles in group and community settings.	3 credits
CEDEV 509	Population, Land Use, and Municipal Finance Study of interaction of population characteristics, land use, municipal funds, and taxation in a locality and how they impact the operation and management of government jurisdictions.	3 credits
CEDEV 610	Thesis Research (off campus) (1 credit) Special project/internship of off-campus research involving integration of concepts and practices from the 4 required courses.	1 credits

