Time needed
- 30 minutes

Interest Approach
Attachment 1 (Personality Profile Survey) is provided to allow each participant to independently assess themselves to see what their personality most logically fits.

Lesson
21. Start with slide 1 by introducing the topic.

22. Slide 2 outlines the objectives for this lesson.

23. Slide 3 defines the terms “trait” and “personality.” Most people have their own definitions or know the definitions of these terms. These two definitions just clarify for the lesson what is meant by these two terms.

24. Slide 4 introduces “The Big Model of Personality.”

25. Slides 5-9 discuss each of these individually.

26. Slide 5 - Surgency – includes leadership and extraversion traits. People strong in surgency like to lead and want to be in charge.

27. Slide 6 - Agreeableness – includes traits related to getting along with people. People strong in this area are typically characterized as warm, easygoing, compassionate, friendly, and sociable.

28. Slide 7 - Adjustment – includes traits related to emotional stability. People strong in adjustment are characterized as being good under pressure, having self control, being calm, secure, and positive.

29. Slide 8 - Conscientiousness – includes traits related to achievement. People that are conscientiousness are hard working, go beyond the call of duty, and have a strong desire to achieve success.
30. Slide 9 - Openness to Experience – includes traits related to being willing to change and try new things. These individuals are risk takers, free thinkers, and creative.

31. Slide 10 Summarizes the “The Big Model of Personality.” Slide 11 discusses nine leadership traits. These include: Dominance, High Energy, Self-confidence, Locus of Control, Stability, Integrity, Intelligence, Flexibility, and Sensitivity to Others.

32. Slide 12 discusses reasons why leaders are not successful

33. Slide 14 is a summary

Conclusion
There are very few people in the world that are strong in these nine traits. Great leaders may not be strong in all nine of these. However, it is important that each of us know our strengths and weaknesses. What we can do is work on these traits that we may not be strong in. There is one thing we know for sure, you can lead others until you know yourself.

___ 1. I step forward and take charge in leaderless situations.
___ 2. I am concerned about getting along well with others.
___ 3. I have good self-control; I don’t get emotional and get angry and yell.
___ 4. I’m dependable; when I say I will do something, it’s done well and on time.
___ 5. I try to do things differently to improve my performance.
___ 6. I enjoy competing and winning; losing bothers me.
___ 7. I enjoy having lots of friends and going to parties.
___ 8. I perform well under pressure.
___ 9. I work hard to be successful.
___ 10. I go to new places and enjoy traveling.
___ 11. I am outgoing and willing to confront people when in conflict.
___ 12. I try to see things from other people’s point of view.
___ 13. I am an optimistic person who sees the positive side of situations (the cup is half full).
___ 15. When I go to a new restaurant, I order foods I haven’t tried.
___ 16. I want to climb the corporate ladder to as high a level of management as I can.
___ 17. I want other people to like me and to be viewed as very friendly.
___ 18. I give lots of praise and encouragement; I don’t put people down and criticize.
___ 19. I conform by following the rules of an organization.
___ 20. I volunteer to be the first to learn and do new tasks.
___ 21. I try to influence other people to get my way.
___ 22. I enjoy working with others more than working alone.
___ 23. I view myself as being relaxed and secure, rather than nervous and insecure.
___ 24. I am considered to be credible because I do a good job and come through for people.
25. When people suggest doing things differently, I support them and help bring it about; I don’t make statements like these: it won’t work, we never did it before, who else did it, or we can’t do it.

To determine your personality profile on the next page: (1) In the blanks, place the number from 1 to 7 that represents your score for each statement. (2) Add up each column—your total should be a number from 5 to 35. (3) On the number scale on the following page, circle the number that is closest to your total score. Each column in the chart represents a specific personality dimension.
